

Advent 4 – The Wise Men

This is the fourth Sunday of Advent. Today we remember the wise men who travelled a long way to worship Jesus.

They saw a comet and followed a glimmer of hope that a new born baby would bring something the world had never known – peace.

Their journey was hard and the way was not always certain.

But they trusted God and let themselves be led.

They were the first ones to give gifts on Christmas as a celebration of the hope for peace born in Jesus.

Today we light this candle to remind us of the wise men's courage, trust, and thanksgiving for the goodness of God.

Light the Fourth Candle

Prayer

Loving God,
give us the searching courage
of the wise men.

Help us to hope for peace
and to give thanks for all you have done in the birth and life of Jesus.

We ask this in the name of Jesus.
Amen.
